WEEKLY REPORT OF SPANISH BELT

Report of the Consolidated Spanish Belt Silver Mining company for the week ending December 21:

San Pedro. The advance in the shaft was 12 feet, making a total depth now of 333 feet. The bottom of the shaft is in quartz.

The air line from the compressor at the main tunnel has been completed and the shaft will be continued with jack-hammers.

The east drift on the first level is being extended on the contact between altered sedimentaries and the granite footwall. We have two shafts resuming the old workings.

PRISONERS GET XMAS DINNER

Sheriff Jack Barrier has arranged a Christmas dinner for the three prisoners now incarcerated in the county jail. The sheriff has for the first week been looking at the choicest turkeys and chickens in the market and last night selected one that is sure to tickle the palates of the men behind the bars. Not a trimming will be forgotten, as the menu includes roast turkey, cranberry sauce, cauliflower, mashed potatoes, oyster soup, olives and mince pie. Cocktails will be handed. The dinner is the last to be given by the present sheriff, who retires to private life shortly after the new year.

BIG DOUBLE BILL AT THE BUTLER TODAY

There will be two features on today's bill. One is a seven-reel special by George Fitzmaurice, "The Right to Love," featuring Mae Murray and David Powell, and the other, while only in two reels, is no less a feature. It is a film record of the greatest horse race the world has ever witnessed and will give you as big a thrill as any event you ever paid $1 to see on any race track. It depicts the Windsor meet in which Man o' War, the son of her horse of all time, defeated the great Sir Barton. We are paying more for these two reels than has been paid for many a five-reel feature that is why we wish to impress you with the fact that this is something more than you have ever seen in motion picture film before.
